Assistant U. S. Attorney RAYMOND E. SUTTON, Las Vegas, advised on January 16, 1961, that in view of refusal of ROBERT MAHEU to furnish name of attorney who had contacted him to furnish a private detective, he was considering possibility of issuing subpoena for MAHEU to testify before Federal Grand Jury since in all probability entire matter would be presented to Federal Grand Jury at Las Vegas. 4

By communication dated January 30, 1961, the Washington Field Office advised that ROBERT MAHEU on January 30, 1961, telephonically contacted the Washington Field Office and advised that he had been in touch with the attorney in Los Angeles, California, but the attorney did not desire to have his name furnished to the FBI. He stated he was going to Los Angeles on January 31, 1961, where he would talk further with the attorney and attempt to secure his permission to furnish the name of the attorney. 4

Date 2/8/61

THOMAS FOLEY, Attorney at Law, advised as follows: u

During the latter part of October, 1960, exact date not recalled, he received a telephone call from JAMES P. CANTILLION, an attorney in Los Angeles, California, requesting FOLEY to represent one ARTHUR J. BALLETTI, who had been arrested by the Clark County Sheriff's Office. FOLEY said he received the call after office hours at his home. He asked CANTILLION about payment of the legal fee, and CANTILLION stated he would personally guarantee payment of the fee. u

FOLEY said that he immediately contacted a bail bondsman and arranged bond for BALLETTI. u

FOLEY said that he is of the opinion but is not sure that JAMES P. CANTILLION is the son of father and son team of Cantillion and Cantillion, a law firm in Los Angeles, California. u

FOLEY said that trial for BALLETTI on the local charge is set for April, 1961, in Las Vegas. u
